10th Sunday after Pentecost

Sunday, August 18th & Monday, August 19th, 2019

Pastor Scott W. Bergemann

Pastor Steven L. Neumann
pastorN@mtzionwi.org

Welcome to our family of faith! Large Print Editions of our bulletin and hymnal, as well as assistive listening devices are available from an usher. Please ask for help or if you have any questions.

IF YOUR CHILDREN BECOME RESTLESS: our church basement is equipped with an audio feed of the church service. Please feel free to make use of that service if you need a place to settle the children down before returning upstairs.

A FAVOR PLEASE: Please take a moment to fill out the tan colored attendance card found in each pew or chair for our church records (guests and members alike). The cards will be collected around the time that the offering is taken after the sermon. Thank you for your help!

THE ALTAR PARAMENTS are GREEN (symbolizing health and growth in a plant) during the Pentecost season reminding us that the Spirit, through His tools of God's Word and the Sacraments, gives us Jesus' saving work and connects us to God for a life of real purpose; for real life and health are in Him! By faith, we have this life in Him. SO we now bear fruit for Him!

THEME OF THE DAY

God's ears are open; so let us then boldly ask for the blessings He promises to give!

Opening Hymn 282 . . . . . Lord, Open Now My Heart to Hear

Order of Service: Today, we follow the Service of the Word which is found on page 38 at the front part of our red hymnal, Christian Worship.

Prayer of the Day: O Lord, your ears are always open to the prayers of your humble servants, who come to you in Jesus' name. Teach us always to ask according to your will that we may never fail to obtain the blessings you have promised; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. (The congregation speaks: 'Amen'.)

THE WORD OF THE DAY

OLD TESTAMENT: GENESIS 18:20-32 (on page 13 of your pew Bibles)

The Lord said, "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is so great and their sin so grievous that I will go down and see if what they have done is as bad as the outcry that has reached me. If not, I will know."

The men turned away and went toward Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before the Lord. Then Abraham approached him and said: "Will you sweep away the righteous with the wicked? What if there are fifty righteous people in the city? Will you really sweep it away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous people in it? Far be it from you to do such a thing—to kill the righteous with the wicked, treating the righteous and the wicked alike. Far be it from you! Will not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

The Lord said, "If I find fifty righteous people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

Then Abraham spoke up again: "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, though I am nothing but dust and ashes, what if the number of the righteous is five less than fifty? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five people?"

"If I find forty-five there," he said, "I will not destroy it."

Once again he spoke to him, "What if only forty are found there?"

He said, "For the sake of forty, I will not do it."

Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak. What if only thirty can be found there?"

He answered, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

Abraham said, "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, what if only twenty can be found there?"

He said, "For the sake of twenty, I will not destroy it."

Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak just once more. What if only ten can be found there?"

He answered, "For the sake of ten, I will not destroy it." (NIV 2011)

Psalm of the Day: We join to sing Psalm 6 on p. 66 of your Hymnal. [NOTE: Our Psalm Cantor will sing the 1st phrase up to the "*", & the Congregation will sing the 2nd phrase in each couplet. We all join together to sing 'Glory be to the Father' & the Refrains.]

(Refrain): Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us.

*O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger* or discipline me in your wrath.*

*Be merciful to me, LORD, for I am faint.**

O LORD, heal me, for my soul is in anguish.

*Turn, O LORD, and deliver me;**
save me because of your unfailing love.

(Refrain): Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us.

*I am worn out from groaning.**
My eyes grow weak with sorrow.

*Away from me, all you who do evil,**
for the LORD has heard my weeping.

*The LORD has heard my cry for mercy;**
the LORD accepts my prayer.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son*
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,*
is now, and will be forever. Amen.

(Refrain: cf. above)

EPISTLE LESSON: COLOSSIANS 2:6-15 (found on page 954 of your pew Bibles)

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ. For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form, and in Christ you have been brought to fullness. He is the head over every power and authority.

In him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not performed by human hands. Your whole self ruled by the flesh was put off when you were circumcised by Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through your faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, having canceled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us; he has taken it away, nailing it to the cross. And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross. (NIV 2011)

Verse of the Day: the pastor speaks: Alleluia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. Alleluia. (John 6:68 cf. NIV) We all join to sing: "Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! These words are written that we may believe that Jesus IS the Christ, the Son of God. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!" (music is on p. 40 in cw)

GOSPEL: LUKE 11:1-13 (found on page 843 of your Pew Bibles)

One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

He said to them, "When you pray, say: "'Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation.'"

Then Jesus said to them, "Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him.' And suppose the one inside answers, 'Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.' I tell you, even though he will not get up and give you the bread because of friendship, yet because of your shameless audacity he will surely get up and give you as much as you need.

So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!" (NIV2011) / The congregation sings: "Praise be to you, O Christ!"

Hymn of the Day: 406 . . . . . This Is the Threefold Truth

SERMON TEXT: 1 CORINTHIANS 14:1-9,22-33,39-40 (on page 932 of your Pew Bibles)

Follow the way of love and eagerly desire gifts of the Spirit, especially prophecy (that is, sharing God's Word). For anyone who speaks in a tongue does not speak to people but to God. Indeed, no one understands them; they utter mysteries by the Spirit. But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouraging and comfort. Anyone who speaks in a tongue edifies themselves, but the one who prophesies edifies the church. I would like every one of you to speak in tongues, but I would rather have you prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be edified.

Now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you and speak in tongues, what good will I be to you, unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or word of instruction? Even in the case of lifeless things that make sounds, such as the pipe or harp, how will anyone know what tune is being played unless there is a distinction in the notes? Again, if the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle? So it is with you. Unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air ...

Tongues, then, are a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers; prophecy, however, is not for unbelievers but for believers. So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and inquirers or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind? But if an unbeliever or an inquirer comes in while everyone is prophesying, they are convicted of sin and are brought under judgment by all, as the secrets of their hearts are laid bare. So they will fall down and worship God, exclaiming, "God is really among you!"

What then shall we say, brothers and sisters? When you come together, each of you has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Everything must be done so that the church may be built up. If anyone speaks in a tongue, two—or at the most three—should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret. If there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church and speak to himself and to God. Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said. And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop. For you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may be instructed and encouraged. The spirits of prophets are subject to the control of prophets. For God is not a God of disorder but of peace ...

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly way. (NIV2011)

'Is Worship WORK or PLAY?'

Our Faith Responds: with the Apostles' Creed (also found on p. 41 in the front of CW)

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Offerings: The offering is a chance for God's people to respond to God's love by giving to carry on His work. If you are a visitor, please don't feel obligated to give an offering. We are truly pleased you have joined us for worship so we could share the gospel with you! Please come again!

Attendance Card Collection: Please take a moment to fill out the attendance card found in each pew (guests & members alike). The cards will be collected right after the offering baskets have been passed through in the 2nd basket that comes around. Thank you!

Prayer of the Church: by pastor, to be followed by the Lord's Prayer together:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Hymn: 478 . . . . . With the Lord Begin Your Task

Closing Prayer (as found on page 43 in the front of CW after which we sing `Amen`)

Closing Hymn: 334 . . . . . Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow

What is Worship?

#5: Is Worship WORK or PLAY?

1. Name things that are being done today in certain places to make worship 'more fun.'
2. What was being done in Corinthian worship in Paul's day that some considered 'more fun,' and what concern did God issue to that church through the Apostle Paul about it and why?
3. What should be the primary focus of worship (3 things – 1 person & 2 truths of God's Word)?
4. What at worship is always going to feel like 'work' (because it is difficult and no fun), and why does God insist that we never remove it from our worship like some have?
5. Keeping the 3 things mentioned in question #3 above as the main focus of worship that is done God's way has implications; what are they when it comes to:
  - a. The music we choose for worship:
  - b. Our preaching:
6. If you've ever felt at worship as if a song we sang or a sermon you heard was not your favorite, or had little to say to you & your situation, what things should you keep in mind, which ought to help you work a little harder at singing that song or listening to that sermon anyway?
7. So, answer the question now: what does God say - is worship work or play?

- † When/how have you showed self-centeredness when it comes to worship – an attitude that judged something (or some worship leader or preacher) as bad, wrong, or not worthy of your time or participation, even though it pointed you to Christ & God's saving truths to feed, assure & guide your soul as God wants in worship, and what do you deserve from God for that? (law)
- † The gospel is more than a feeling; it's a fact based on a series of historical realities. What are those realities (Jesus' what?), & because of them, what has God done with our sins? (gospel)
- † From this sermon, what does God want you to do differently moving forward? (applications)

Saturday, October 5, hosted by Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary Auxiliary

*This day.
This place.
Our time to serve.*

Please join us for Friends of the Seminary Day on Oct. 5 where men and women gather to learn more about the vital mission of the seminary. Presentations and lectures highlight some of the ways our faculty and students are serving Christ's church on a wider scale on and off our campus. In addition, an offering is collected and participants choose which projects to fund. Since 1973, more than $120,000 in wish-list donations has been given by friends of the seminary through the WLS Auxiliary. The day includes coffee fellowship, worship with the Seminary Chorus, a light luncheon, and campus tours.

Professors Brad Wordell and E. Allen Sorum will share photos and stories of PSI students and mission projects from North America and around the world. Of special interest is how the PSI program of WLS has shaped much of the overseas mission work our church body is now carrying out. Seminary Senior Paul Bourman will share a presentation about his experiences during vicar year in Falls Church, Virginia. The presentation will feature stories about the blessings and challenges of living, working, and sharing the gospel in the diversity and busyness of the Washington D.C. metro area.

8-9 am: Registration and coffee hour

9 am-Noon: Worship followed by presentations

Noon: Lunch

12:45 pm: Seminary tour. Please RSVP for the tour when sending in your registration information.
